>> I'd like to make myself believe,
that planet Earth turns slowly... <<

Song stuck in my head.

Forgive me for my 1 month Newsletter hiatus, but I was at Youth Conference being awesome. For those of you who didn't go, you'd better have some kind of excuse, because it was amazing. Now it's December, and it's really cold. But whatever, 'tis the season I suppose. Christmas and New Year's are around the corner, and it's that time to be festive and happy. So go out and do that sort of thing, with your friends, family, whomever. People need it, and they need to remember what this season's about. Not about the presents, but more about the present. Be happy with who you are with, and don't forget it.

HEY KEY CLUBBERS!!!

Project LIFE

Project Life is making a bounce back; I will be starting a Newsletter dedicated to Project Life. Read up on it when it comes out, and stay tuned on my facebook group for the location of the Newsletter when it comes out. If you have any questions or concerns about Project Life, contact me anytime. Thanks!

District Convention 2010

Ohmigawd. I can't wait. The end of the District Board's term is bittersweet, but it's still a lot of fun. Let's just say it's emotional, but well worth it. If you guys went to YC and liked it, you'll love DCON. If you didn't go to YC, come to DCON and see what I'm talking about.

It's a little early now to talk about it, and you guys are probably more worried about finals and Christmas, so I'll spare you with this: Save up money for formal clothes and the admission fee. It's the only real drawback, but again, it's plenty worth it. See you guys there!

School is HARD

Just want to let you guys know XD
